

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE
ALUMNAE LOYALTY AWARD

Presented to

Eleanor Tomb Cicerchi '66

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Eleanor Tomb Cicerchi, class of 1966, with the Loyalty Award. Your exceptional service as a volunteer has helped Mount Holyoke advance its mission and sustain its values. Today, we are pleased to honor your work and express our gratitude.

A religion major, you graduated Phi Beta Kappa and were the recipient of a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. You hold a master's degree in nonprofit management from The New School. Over the years, you have established yourself as a leader in the field of fundraising management. Currently, you direct the Signature Campaign at The Newark Museum. You also serve as an adjunct faculty member in the nonprofit management graduate program of The New School and a faculty member for The Fund Raising School of the Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University.

In addition to your professional accomplishments and raising a family, you also have consistently supported your alma mater. Your volunteer résumé includes service as Head Class Agent, Class Cornerstone Chair, and Special Gifts Chair for the Class of 1966. You have also assumed the duties of Class President and Vice President.

Likewise, you have been an active member of the Bergen-Passaic New Jersey Club. During the past two decades, you have taken on a range of leadership roles, including President, Ways and Means Committee Chair, and Nominating Committee Chair.

Alumnae describe you as "engaged" and "deeply committed." You are much respected for always following through, no matter what the project or situation. Time and again, you step forward to do your part to ensure Mount Holyoke's continued excellence for current and future students.

You have embodied Mary Lyon's expectation when she said, "Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!" With sincere thanks for your extraordinary efforts and for your ongoing volunteer service, the Alumnae Association recognizes you with the Loyalty Award.
