

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE
YOUNG ALUMNAE LOYALTY AWARD

Presented to

Ellen N. Pactor '06

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Ellen N. Pactor, class of 2006, with the Young Alumnae Loyalty Award. During the full and challenging years just following graduation, you always made time for Mount Holyoke and that commitment has only grown throughout this decade. Your volunteer service is exceptional by any standards but is especially remarkable for a young alumna.

As a member of the Minneapolis Club, you wore many hats—and wore them all well. Shortly after joining the Club, you stepped up to help however and wherever was needed. As Club president, members credited you with revitalizing the group. Likewise, as your fifth reunion approached, you offered your time and talents to help organize the event

In all of your volunteer capacities you have been respected for your dedication and follow-through. You also have earned a reputation as someone always willing to help. Club members know that you can be counted upon to contribute to whatever initiative or program is underway.

Who you are and all you do on behalf of your alma mater is deeply appreciated by your sister alumnae. Likewise, the Alumnae Association recognizes your leadership and looks forward to collaborating with you for years to come.

You have embodied Mary Lyon's expectation when she said, "Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!"

With sincere thanks for your extraordinary efforts and for your ongoing volunteer service, the Alumnae Association recognizes you with the Loyalty Award.
