ALUMNAE LOYALTY AWARD

Presented to

Jean Fedderman Winner '46

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Jean Fedderman Winner, class of 1946, with the Loyalty Award. By generously dedicating your time and talents, you have helped the College and the Alumnae Association advance its mission and enduring values. It is with great pride that we pay tribute to your decades of service.

You came to Mount Holyoke from Millburn High School in New Jersey and majored in history. You were assistant librarian of the Glee Club, a member of the archery team, a dorm president, and Senior Class Vice President. The summer after graduation, you married Bruce, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. You continued your education at Columbia University before raising three children. Your daughter, Anne Winner McMinn, graduated from Mount Holyoke in 1975.

Your service to Mount Holyoke has been vast and varied; you have contributed to development efforts, class and club work, and the work of the Alumnae Association. All who have worked with you over the years speak of your wisdom and experience. During the 1950s, you served on the Board of the Mount Holyoke Club of Chicago. A decade later, you joined the Mount Holyoke College Club of Northern New Jersey and served as Secretary, Vice President, and President. You also spent a year on the Alumnae Association's Council Committee and served a three-year term on the Nominating Committee. The Class of 1946 has benefitted from your work as Class Agent and Head Class Agent, as well as a Reunion Gift Caller. From 1991 to 1994, you were Vice-President of your class; you also chaired the Nominating Committee and volunteered on several Reunion committees.

You have embodied Mary Lyon's expectation when she said, "Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!" With sincere thanks for your extraordinary efforts and for your ongoing volunteer service, the Alumnae Association recognizes you with the Loyalty Award.
