

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

YOUNG ALUMNA

VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP AWARD 2013

PRESENTED TO

Hilary M. Salmon '03

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor HILARY M. SALMON, CLASS OF 2003, with the Young Alumna Volunteer Leadership Award. Presented to a young alumna who has demonstrated strong leadership, consistent effort over time, and active involvement in one or more areas of service, this award recognizes individuals who have made meaningful contributions to the Association or the College.

You definitely have made an impressive contribution to the Mount Holyoke community in the short time since your graduation. Your efforts on behalf of the Alumnae Club of Washington, DC, and the Alumnae Association Board of Directors are particularly noteworthy.

Your alumnae colleagues in the Washington club note that your “energetic and optimistic personality” makes it a pleasure to work with you, and they believe that your commitment to revitalizing the club is a major contributor to the progress that has been made.

One of your colleagues on the Board of Directors commended your good work and willingness to volunteer for assignments above and beyond your official duties. Another board colleague said, “She not only does one of the busiest and most difficult jobs on the board with intelligence and diligence, but she also contributes much beyond that level,” including working on by-laws and serving as a thoughtful member of the board’s Executive Committee.

Hilary, you have embodied Mary Lyon’s expectation when she said, “Turn your current of feeling towards others and it will reach out in a thousand streams.” It is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Alumnae Association Young Alumna Volunteer Leadership Award.
