LAURIE PRIEST

ALUMNAE SCHOLAR ATHLETE AWARD

PRESENTED TO

Hannah E. Arbach '15

HANNAH E. ARBACH, CLASS OF 2015, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to present you with the Laurie Priest Alumnae Scholar Athlete Award. This award is conferred upon a student who demonstrates qualities that make her an outstanding athlete, an exceptional scholar, and a leader within the community.

Hannah, you have played an instrumental role in the success of Mount Holyoke rowing over the past four years. Your commitment to excellence, dedication to training, and outstanding leadership skills as captain of the team have led you to many successes throughout your rowing career at Mount Holyoke. Among your most impressive achievements, you have twice been named an ECAC/NIRC All Star and in 2014 you received the Holly Metcalf Cup for excellence in rowing—an award voted on by your own teammates. You are always striving to improve on your personal record, both on the water and in the erg room.

You have also earned prestigious academic recognition, including being named to the NEWMAC Academic All-Conference team in 2013, 2014, and 2015. As an accomplished scholar and researcher, you have become a trusted assistant to many faculty members. In addition, your academic performance has earned you acceptances to some of the nation's most highly esteemed graduate schools for biochemistry.

In recognition of these and other exceptional achievements in athletics and academics, the Alumnae Association is proud to honor you with the Laurie Priest Alumnae Scholar Athlete Award.
