

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

LOYALTY AWARD 2018

PRESENTED TO

Alice Godfrey Andrus '63

ALICE GODFREY ANDRUS, CLASS OF 1963, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor you with the Loyalty Award. This award is presented to an alumna who has demonstrated exceptional loyalty to the Alumnae Association and/or College through her consistent effort and active involvement over an extended period of time in at least one area of service. Volunteer effort may be on behalf of classes, clubs, global regions, groups, the Alumnae Association, or the College.

Alice, at a time when many alumnae understandably step away from active service, your involvement with Mount Holyoke College, the “Boston Group”—an informal network of loyal and energetic alumnae, and the Alumnae Association—especially the class of 1963, has only deepened over the past two decades. You have been a class agent, historian, reunion chair, and vice president. Now, as class president, you have worked tirelessly to maintain the spirit and support sparked by your fiftieth class reunion, which you organized, by fostering a lively website and promoting the concept of mini-reunions with great success.

Your classmates consider you a “catalyst of togetherness and community building,” describing the way you seek out members of the class wherever and whenever you travel. One said you were such a positive influence on her that she recently became involved with the College for the first time and is now a class officer. A fellow officer highlights your “good humor,” demonstrated by your “warm demeanor” and a “special sparkle” in your eye. Another classmate says of you, “She’s the glue. She gets down in the dirt.”

ALICE, for your exceptional loyalty, it is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Loyalty Award on this, your fifty-fifth, reunion.
