GREECE & MAGNA GRAECIA

A Journey to Athens, the Peloponnese and Southern Italy

With Professor of Classics Geoffrey S. Sumi

Statue of Kore; 6th Century BC. Acropolis Museum, Athens.

October 8 – 19, 2019

Dear Mount Holyoke Alumna,

I am pleased to announce this rare opportunity for Mount Holyoke Alumnae and friends to explore ancient sites of Greece and southern Italy in the company of distinguished Professor of Classics, Geoffrey S. Sumi. A member of the Mount Holyoke faculty since 1996, Professor Sumi teaches, in addition to Greek and Latin language at all levels, a broad range of subjects ranging from Greek and Roman history and historiography to ancient sport and entertainment to Roman ceremony and spectacle. His lectures and his accessibility throughout the trip will result in a stimulating and rewarding travel experience for the small, convivial group of alumnae joining this journey.

This unique journey explores parts of Greece and Italy that share a common history going back thousands of years. Beginning in Athens, travelers will visit its famed monuments that stand as testimonials to the incredible achievements of the Classical period (5th - 4th centuries BC) when the city reached its Golden Age. The trip then proceeds south to the Peloponnese, separated from the Greek mainland by the narrow sliver of the Corinth Canal.

The landmark archaeological sites, historic towns and the beauty of its scenery combine to make the Peloponnese one of Greece's most important and appealing areas. This was the home of the Mycenaean civilization, fabled Sparta and tranquil Olympia. It was the site of the Olympic Games, which were held every four years, from 776 BC until AD 393, a span of over 1000 years. Here travelers will explore important sites that span the millennia, from the Bronze Age to the Byzantine period, and enjoy the beauty of springtime in Greece when the countryside is adorned with myriad wildflowers in bloom.

The discourse on Greek civilization will continue from the Peloponnese, under sail across the Ionian and Adriatic Seas aboard a modern ferry to southern Italy. After landing in Bari the tour will spend three days in the heart of Puglia. This region was known in antiquity as Magna Graecia ("Greater Greece") due to the large number of cities founded by Greeks, starting in the 8th century BC. In all, 22 major settlements were established, some of them evolving into powerful centers of culture and learning. Several will be explored, as well as other attractions of Puglia, including the remarkable trulli villages.

This is a journey to extraordinarily beautiful lands that reveal the continuity of culture from deep antiquity to more recent times. I am delighted to offer Mount Holyoke Alumnae the opportunity to join Professor Sumi on this magnificent travel and learning experience.

With warm regards,

Nancy B. Perez '76
Executive Director
Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College

P.S. Please note that we are excited to offer this alumnae tour as a separate and distinct option from the "Mount Holyoke European Alumnae Symposium in Greece," scheduled on October 4, 5, & 6 2019. Alumnae participating in the European Symposium who wish to also participate in "Greece and Magna Graecia," are welcome to do so. Conversely, anyone wishing to participate in the tour is welcome to participate in the European Symposium. The registration is separate for each event.

Thursday, October 10

ATHENS

Athens' ancient monuments attest to its glorious past. This is the birthplace of democracy and many other ideas and concepts that form the integral part of the Western tradition. In the morning visit the Acropolis and its celebrated monuments, including the incomparable Parthenon and other temples built in the 5th century BC. Visit also the Acropolis Museum, which houses an outstanding collection of sculptures and other artifacts. In the afternoon, explore the Agora, the heart of public life of ancient Athens. Here, Socrates conversed with his fellow citizens.

Meals: B

Friday, October 11

ATHENS/CORINTH/MYCENAE/NAFLION

Leaving Athens in the morning, drive over the steep banks of the Corinth Canal, the narrow waterway that separates the Greek mainland from the Peloponnese. Stop at Old Corinth, one of the most prominent and powerful cities of ancient Greece. Visit the 6th-century BC Temple of Apollo, one of the oldest in Greece, and the museum. Continue to Mycenae, the most important center of the Mycenaean civilization that flourished in the second millennium BC, and home of Agamemnon. Walk through the monumental Lion Gate to explore the fabled citadel. End the day in nearby Nafplion at the Hotel Ippoliti.

Meals: B, L, D

Saturday, October 12

NAFLION/EPIDAUROS/NAFLION

Situated on the shores of a spacious bay and crowned with two fortresses, medieval Nafplion is one of Greece's most attractive towns. Spend the morning at leisure to discover the town's narrow streets and graceful squares, lined with neoclassical buildings. In the afternoon drive to nearby Epidaurus, the shrine dedicated to Asclepius, the god of healing. A religious shrine, health center and popular spa in antiquity, Epidaurus is famous for its incredible 4th century BC theater, known for its perfect acoustics and harmonious proportions.

Meals: B

Sunday, October 13

NAFLION/MISTRA/SPARTA

Drive through the heartland of the Peloponnese to Mistra. Built on a conical hill that commands superlative views of the plain of ancient and modern Sparta, Mistra was one of the last flourishing centers of the Byzantine Empire. Today, it is an evocative medieval walled city, with several churches that contain luminous frescoes, palaces and houses from that period. Perhaps no other place in Greece gives travelers such a complete picture of the medieval period as Mistra does, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After lunch, visit Sparta's Museum of the Olive, housed in a restored olive warehouse, whose exhibits chronicle how olive oil was made from antiquity to the present. Overnight at the lovely new Mystras Palace Resort and Spa, located in the countryside near Sparta.

Meals: B, L, D

Monday, October 14

SPARTA/BASSAE/OLYMPIA

Leave Sparta in the morning driving through the pretty country of Laconia and Arcadia to Bassae. High on a mountain terrace of Arcadia stands the remote Temple of Apollo Epikourios (“protector”), considered to have been designed by Iktinos, the architect of the Parthenon, and built in the 5th century BC. The temple is one of the best preserved Classical monuments in Greece, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. To protect it from deterioration, the temple is covered in a tent-like structure. Enjoy lunch at the traditional hill town of Andritsaina, and then continue to Olympia with overnight at the Olympion Asty Hotel.

Meals: B, L, D

Tuesday, October 15

OLYMPIA/PATRAS/FERRY CROSSING TO ITALY

Olympia’s beautiful setting in a river valley covered with evergreen oaks, poplars, planes and pines, coupled with its importance throughout antiquity, make it one of the most significant archaeological sites in Greece. A sacred precinct dedicated to Zeus, it was at Olympia that the Panhellenic games were held every four years from 776 BC to 393 AD, giving rise to the modern Olympics. Explore Olympia in the morning, seeing its temples, other public buildings and the stadium where the games were held. Also, visit the Archaeological Museum, which exhibits some of the best Classical and Roman sculptures in Greece. After lunch, drive to the port city of Patras to board the modern ferry for the overnight passage to Bari, in Italy’s Puglia region.

Meals: B, L

Wednesday, October 16

BARI/MONOPOLI, Puglia, Italy

Dock in the morning in Bari, the ancient Barium, settled by Greeks and an important port and commercial center under the Romans. Disembark and drive to the fishing port town of Monopoli, noted for its 12th-century cathedral, rebuilt during the Baroque period (18th century). Following a lunch of seafood and other local specialties, continue to our lovely boutique hotel, Masseria Torrepietra. The balance of the day is at leisure with dinner included this evening.

Meals: L, D

Thursday, October 17

METAPONTUM & TARANTO

Although Mycenaean Greeks had a presence in southern Italy during the second millennium BC, it was shortly after 800 BC that Greeks began to settle in Italy’s southern shores. The cities they founded, (twenty two major settlements were established), grew in wealth and stature, becoming important centers of culture and learning. This part of Italy was known as Magna Graecia, “Greater Greece.”

Leave the hotel in the morning to explore Metapontum, founded in the 7th century BC by settlers from Pylos in the western Peloponnese. The Doric temple known as the Tavole Palatine is one of the best preserved monuments of Magna Graecia. Continue to Taranto, the ancient Taras. Founded by Spartans in 708 BC, Taras became one of the most powerful cities of Magna Graecia. Today, Taranto is an important commercial port city. Tour the town, including the National Archaeological Museum, which houses one of the largest collections of antiquities in Italy.

Meals: B, L

Friday, October 18

ALBEROBELLO/EGNATHIA

We begin the day exploring the town of Alberobello, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that features over 1,500 trulli structures. These remarkable, curious white-washed structures have pyramidal, conical or domed roofs built of corbelled local limestone without mortar, using a prehistoric building technique that has survived to this day. Lunch is at a traditional farmhouse that produces organic mozzarella, and other Apulian cheeses. We will be welcomed by the owner, Mariangela, who will show us how to make homemade mozzarella before we enjoy a meal of local specialties that she will prepare just for us. Continue to Egnathia, where we explore the remains of this Greek-Messapian town on the Adriatic Coast. In the evening, enjoy a farewell dinner.

Meals: B, L, D

Saturday, October 19

BARI/USA

Transfer in the morning to Bari’s airport for the return flight to the USA.

ITINERARY: The itinerary, accommodations and arrangements are subject to change at the discretion of Thalassa Journeys.

RESPONSIBILITY: Please read carefully the following terms and conditions, which constitute the sole, legally enforceable agreements between the traveler and Thalassa Journeys and the tour's sponsoring organization. Thalassa Journeys acts solely as agent for the traveler with respect to all transportation, hotel and other tour arrangements. In that capacity, we exercise all reasonable care possible to ensure the traveler's safety and satisfaction, but, we neither assume nor bear any responsibility or liability for any injury, death, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity arising in connection with the services of any ship, airplane, train, automobile, motor coach, carriage or other conveyance, or the actions of any third-party, involved in carrying the traveler or in affecting these tours. We are not responsible for damages, additional expenses, or any other losses due to cancellation, delay or other changes in air or other services, sickness, weather, strike, war, civil disturbances, acts or threats of terrorism, travel warnings or bans, termination or suspension of war risks or other carrier insurance, quarantine, acts of God or other causes beyond our control. All such losses must be borne by the traveler, and tour rates provide for arrangements only for the time stated. In the event of cancellation, delay or rescheduling mandated by any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the traveler shall have the option of accepting in lieu of the original tour such rescheduled tour or other substituted tour(s) as may be offered by us, or else, receiving a refund of as much of such advance tour expenditures as we are able to recover on the traveler's behalf from carriers, third-party tour vendors, etc., but, we shall not have any obligation or liability to the traveler beyond the foregoing. We reserve the right to make alterations to the tour's itinerary and to substitute hotels, transportation methods, or lecturers if this is required. We reserve the right to cancel, delay, or reschedule any tour prior to departure, and, so long as this is not due to any of the aforesaid causes beyond our control, the traveler shall be entitled to a full refund of all monies paid to that point if he/she so desires. No refund shall be made for any unused portion of any tour. By forwarding their deposit(s), the traveler certifies that he/she and/or their dependents, minors or others covered thereby do not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that could create a hazard for them or other travelers. We reserve the right to decline to accept or to decline to retain any person as a member of any tour should such person's health, condition or actions adversely affect or threaten the welfare or safety of other travelers or impede the tour. Baggage or valuables brought on the tour shall be transported, handled or stored at the traveler's risk entirely, and, we shall bear no liability or responsibility for any damage or other loss thereto. Resolution of any disputes arising hereunder shall be affected exclusively in the state or federal courts presiding in the City of New York, pursuant to applicable New York law.

RATES: Tour costs are based upon current airfares, tariffs, and currency values. While we do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change.
