

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE
ACHIEVEMENT AWARD 2020

PRESENTED TO

Pamela Giles Bailey '70

PAMELA GILES BAILEY, CLASS OF 1970, the Alumnae Association is pleased to honor you with the Achievement Award. This award is presented to alumnae whose accomplishments and service to society exemplify the values and virtues set forth by the College.

Pamela, as a nationally recognized leader in both the private and public sectors, your career has focused on the creation of policies for improved health and food safety.

While at Mount Holyoke, you were a Victoria Schuck intern for the Nixon administration. After graduation you served as research assistant to President Richard Nixon until 1973, when you became staff assistant to the president and director of research. In 1974 you were named assistant director of the Domestic Policy Council, where you were responsible for the president's health, welfare, aging and social security policies. In 1981 you were nominated by President Ronald Reagan to serve as assistant secretary for public affairs for the Department of Health and Human Services. In 2010 President Barack Obama appointed you to the Advisory Committee for Trade Policy and Negotiations, the principal committee for the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative.

Recently retired from your position as president and CEO of the Grocery Manufacturers Association, you have served as president and CEO of both the Advanced Medical Technology Association and the Personal Care Products Council. When the Healthcare Leadership Council was founded in 1988, you were named its first president and CEO, a post you held until 1999. For your contributions to health and public safety, you were named Lobby Leader of the Year by Legal Times in 2002 as well as one of Washington's 100 Most Powerful Women by Washingtonian magazine in 2009.

PAMELA, for your outstanding accomplishments, the Alumnae Association is honored to present you with the Achievement Award on this, your fiftieth, reunion.
